Poetry.

WINTER IS COME.

BY D. C. COLESWORTHY.

Winter is coming—cold and drear—
See ye the poor around?
O! when the wrathful storm's career,
And snows o'er spread the ground,
Will ye not take them by the hand,
On to the hovel go,
And around the dying embers stand,
And wipe the tears that flow?

Winter is coming—hear ye not
The mother's earnest cry?
For dark and dreary is her lot—
Nor real friend is nigh.
For wood and bread she asketh now,
O! shall she ask in vain?
See sorrow stamped upon her brow,
And make the orphan's train.

The closet watch—a pair of shoes,
Half worn—and here's a cap,
Which you perhaps may never use—
A hat with scarce a nap—
A pair of pants—a rusty coat—
Oh! give them to the poor,
What is not worth to you a groat
Will health and warmth secure.

What's in your garret? Have the moths
For months been busy there?
Ay, they have quite destroyed the clothes
You've saved with prudent care.
Come pull them out, perhaps we may
Find something that will make
A poor man rich if given to-day,
And bless the hearts that ache.

Winter is coming—give, oh give
Whatever ye can spare;
A mite will make the wretched live,
And smooth the brow of care.
When plenty smiles around your door,
And comfort dwells within;
If you forget the worthy poor,
'Twill be a grievous sin.

The Two Homes.

Two men on their way home met at a street-crossing, and then walked on together. They were neighbors and friends.

'This has been a very hard day,' said Mr. Freeman in a gloomy voice. And as they walked homeward they discouraged each other, and made darker the clouds that obscured their whole horizon.

'Good evening,' was at last said hurriedly; and the two men passed into their homes.

Mr. Walcott entered the room where his wife and children were gathered, without speaking to any one, seated himself in a chair, and leaning his head back, closed his eyes. His countenance wore a sad, weary, exhausted look. He had been seated thus only a few minutes, when his wife said in a fearful voice:

'More trouble, again.'

'What is the matter now?' asked Mr. Walcott, almost starting.

'John has been sent home from school.'

'What!' Mr. Walcott partly rose from his chair.

'He has been suspended for bad conduct.'

'Oh dear!' groaned Mr. Walcott, 'where is he?'

'Up in his room; I sent him there as soon as he came home. You'll have to do something with him. He'll be ruined if he goes on in this way. I'm out of all heart with him.'

Mr. Walcott, excited as much by the manner in which his wife conveyed the unpleasant information as by the information itself, started up, under the blind impulse of the moment, and going to the room where John had been sent on coming home from school, punished the boy severely and without listening to the explanation which the poor child tried to make him hear.

'Father,' said the boy, with forced calmness after the stripes had ceased. 'I wasn't to blame, and if you will go with me to the teacher, I can prove myself innocent.'

Mr. Walcott had never known his son to tell an untruth, and the words fell with a rebuke upon his heart.

'Very well, we will see about that,' he answered, with forced sternness; and leaving the room he went down stairs, feeling much more uncomfortable than when he went up.—

Again he seated himself in his large chair, and again leaned back his weary head and closed his heavy eyelids. Sadder was his face than before. As he sat thus, his eldest daughter, in her sixteenth year, came and stood by him. She had a paper in her hand.

'Father,' he opened his eyes: 'here's my quarter's bill. Can't I have the money to take to school with me in the morning?'

'I am afraid not,' answered Mr. Walcott, half in despair.

'Nearly all the girls will bring their money to-morrow, and it mortifies me to be behind the others.' The daughter spoke fretfully —Mr. Walcott waved her aside with his hand, and she went off muttering and pouting.

'It is mortifying,' said Mrs. Walcott, a little sharply; 'and I don't wonder that Helen feels annoyed about it. The bill has to be paid, and I don't see why it may not be done as well first as last.

To this Mr. Walcott made no answer.—The words but added another pressure to the heavy burden under which he was already staggering. After a silence of some moments, Mrs. Walcott said:

'The coals are all gone.'

'Impossible!' Mr. Walcott raised his head and looked incredulous. 'I laid in sixteen tons.'

'I can't help it, if there were sixty tons instead of sixteen; they are all gone. The girls had hard work to-day to scrape up enough to keep the fire in.'

'There has been a shameful waste somewhere,' said Mr. Walcott, with strong emphasis, starting up and moving about the room with a very disturbed manner.

'So you always say when anything runs out,' answered Mrs. Walcott, rather tartly. 'The barrel of flour is gone also; but I suppose you have done your part, with the rest in using it up.'

Mr. Walcott returned to his chair, and again seating himself, leaned back his head and closed his eyes as at first. How sad, and weary and hopeless he felt! The burdens of the day had seemed almost too heavy for him; but he had borne up bravely. To gather strength for a renewed struggle with adverse circumstances, he had come home. Alas! that the process of exhaustion should still go on—that where only strength could be looked for on earth, no strength was given.

When the tea bell was rung, Mr. Walcott made no movement to answer the summons.

'Come to supper,' said his wife coldly.

But he did not stir.

'Are you coming to supper?' she called to him, as she was leaving the room.

'I don't wish for anything this evening.—My head aches very much,' he answered.

'In the dumps again,' muttered Mrs. Walcott to herself. 'It's as much as one's life is worth to ask for money, or to say anything is wanted.' And she kept on her way to the dining-room. When she returned her husband was still sitting where she had left him.

'Shall I bring you a cup of tea?' She asked.'

'No, I don't wish for anything.'

'What's the matter Mr. Walcott? What do you look so troubled about, as if you hadn't a friend in the world? What have I done to you?'

There was no answer, for there was not a shade of real sympathy in the voice that made the queries, but rather of querulous dissatisfaction. A few moments Mrs. Walcott stood behind her husband, but as he did not seem inclined to answer questions, she turned away from him, and resumed the employment which had been interrupted by the ringing of the tea bell.

The whole evening passed without the occurrence of a single incident that gave a healthful pulsation to the sick heart of Mr Walcotte. No thoughtful kindness was manifested by any member of the family; but on the contrary, a narrow regard for self, and a looking to him only that he might supply the means of self gratification.

No wonder, from the pressure that was on him, that Mr. Walcotte felt utterly discouraged. He retired early, and sought to find that relief from mental disquietude, in sleep, which he had vainly hoped for in the bosom of his family. But the whole night passed in broken slumber and disturbing dreams. From the cheerless morning meal, at which he was reminded of the quarter's bill that must be paid, of the coals and flour that were out, and of the necessity of supplying Mrs. Walcott's empty purse, he went forth to meet the difficulties of another day, faint at heart, and almost hopeless of success. A confident spirit, sustained by home affections, would have carried him through; but unsupported as he was, the burden was too heavy for him, and he sank under it. The day that opened so unpropitiously closed upon him a ruined man.

Let us look in for a few moments upon Mr. Freeman, a friend and neighbor of Mr. Walcott. He also had come home weary, dispirited, and almost sick. The trials of the day had been unusually severe, and when he looked anxiously forward to scan the future, not even a gleam of light was seen along the black horizon.

As he stepped across the threshold of his dwelling, a pang shot through his heart, for the thought came—"how slight the present hold upon all these comforts." Not for himself, but for his wife and children, was the pain.

"Father's come," cried a glad little voice on the stairs, the moment his footfall sounded on the passage; then quick pattering feet were heard—and then a tiny form was springing into his arms. Before reaching the sitting room above, Alice, the eldest daughter, was by his side, her arm drawn fondly within his, and her loving eyes lifted to his face.

"Are you not late, dear?" It was the gentle voice of Mrs. Freeman.

Mr. Freeman could not trust himself to answer. He was too deeply troubled in spirit to assume at the moment a cheerful tone, and he had no wish to sadden the hearts that loved him, by letting the depression from which he was suffering, become too clearly apparent. But the eyes of Mrs. Freeman saw quickly below the surface.

"Are you not well, Robert?" she inquired tenderly, as she drew his large arm-chair towards the centre of the room.

"A slight headache," he answered, with a slight evasion.

Scarcely was Mr. Freeman seated ere a pair of hands was busy with each foot, removing gaiter and shoes, and supplying their place with a soft slipper. There was not one in the household who did not feel happier for his return, nor one who did not seek to render some kind office.

It was impossible, under such a burst of heart-sunshine, for the spirit of Mr. Freeman long to remain shrouded. Almost imperceptibly to himself gloomy thoughts gave place to more cheerful ones, and by the time the tea was ready, he had half forgotten the fears which had so haunted him through the day.

But they could not be held back altogether, and their existence was marked during the evening by an unusual silence and abstraction of mind. This was observed by Mrs. Freeman, who more than half suspecting the cause, kept back from her husband the knowledge of certain matters about which she had intended to speak to him, for she feared they would add to his mental disquietude. During the evening she gleaned from something he said the real cause of his charged aspect. At once her thoughts commenced running in a new channel. By a few leading remarks she drew her husband into conversation on the subject of home expenses, and the propriety of restriction in various points. Many things were mutually pronounced superfluous and easily to be dispensed with, and before sleep fell soothingly on the heavy eye-lids of Mr. Freeman that night, an entire change in their style of living had been determined upon—a change that would reduce their expenses at least one half.

"I see light ahead" were the hopeful words of Mr. Freeman, as he resigned himself to slumber.

With renewed strength of mind and body, and a confident spirit, he went forth the next day—a day that he had looked forward to with fear and trembling. And it was only through this renewed strength and confident spirit that he was able to overcome the difficulties that loomed up, mountain high, before him. Weak despondency would have ruined all. Home had proved a tower of strength—its walled city. Strengthened for the conflict, he had gone forth again into the world, and conquered in the struggle.

"I see light ahead," gave place to "the morning breaketh."—Orange Blossoms.

The Law of Licenses.

A few days ago, we gave a letter of a correspondent on this subject, and appended some remarks of our own, in reply. A legal friend informs us that we have mistaken the purport of the new law, which is effected by an Imperial Statute still in force. We therefore re print the letter, which contains a query of considerable importance, and one which should be generally understood:

To the Editor of the News of the Week.

TOWNSHIP OF COLLINGWOOD, Dec. 10, '58

GENTLEMEN,—Will you be pleased to explain in the next number of your widely-extended journal what is meant by this last Act of Parliament as regards Tavern Licenses. It appears to be understood in this section that our country road-side taverns will have to pay $25 under the old Act of George III, and $5 as a Provincial duty besides this, which joined with what our Municipal Council will put on their charges, some ten or fifteen dollars more, likely will be the means of shutting up all the country taverns, and cause a great deal of suffering and inconvenience to the backwoodsman, who have to travel a great distance with oxen to mill and stores for supplies, as well as a great deal of inconvenience to the travelling community generally.

By noticing this, you will oblige a great many

SUBSCRIBERS.

The sum to be paid for a tavern licence, which is in no case to be less than twenty-five dollars, is to include as well the sum thereout payable under the Imperial Act 14, George III, cap. 88, s. 5, as under the Provincial Act 22 Vic., cap. 70, s. 14. The sum on each licence payable under the Imperial Act is £1 10s sterling. The sum payable in the like case under the Provincial Act is $12, if the place licensed be in a city; $10, if within an incorporated town; and $5 if not within the limits of a city or town. The sum of $25, or more, payable to the Municipal Officer is to embrace these two sums. Whatever is over after deducting these from the $25, or more, belongs to the Municipality issuing the license.—Colonist.

☞ A physician of New Orleans, a few days since, tried the experiment of transfusion on a patient, who was dying for want of blood nourishment, with complete success.

THE NEW BRITISH MINISTER TO THE UNITED STATES.—Lord Lyons, who has been appointed the successor of Lord Napier as the representative of Her Britanic Majesty at Washington, is of American decent. His great-grandfather was a Philadelphian, who removed to Antigua where the father of the first Lord Lyons was born.—N. Y. Times.

☞ Cyrus W. Field recieved from Newfoundland, on Monday, a despatch stating that on Saturday some very good currents were recieved over the Atlantic cable, and the word "Henly" was distinctly recognized about the hour when, according to the advices received by the Arabia, Mr. Henly's large machine was to have been working.

THE NORTHERN RAILWAY.—Since the commencement of last Session, numerous efforts have been made to devise means to enable the Northern Railway Company to relieve itself from its embarrassments, and to place the line in good working order. From various causes these attempts have hitherto proved ineffectual, and it is now understood that unless immediate relief is obtained the road will be closed by the Railway Inspectors, as not being in a fit state for travel on account of the wearing out of the rails.—Colonist.

A GRIST MILL BURNED IN KING.—We regret to be informed by Mr. Joseph Wood, from the township of King, that Mr. Stokes' Grist Mill, on lot 3, seventh concession of that township, has been burned to the ground. It was observed to be on fire on Thursday morning, about daybreak, and the conflagration spread with such rapidity that it was impossible to save any part of the property, except the water wheel which was preserved by the water being turned upon it. There was 1,500 to 2,000 bushels of wheat in the mill at the time, some of it belonging to Mr. Stokes, and the rest to farmers in the neighbourhood. The mill was a very valuable property. Last year some £300 worth of repairs had been put upon it. The whole loss is estimated at £20 000, none of which is insured, the insurance, as we are informed, having expired three months since. Much sympathy is felt with Mr Stokes in his calamity. The hands employed in the mill had left it the previous evening about five o'clock, and, as there had been no fire in the stores on account of the mildness of the weather, strong suspicions are entertained that the fire was the work of an incendiary.—Globe.

SPIRITUAL INTERCOURSE.—The spiritual intercourse is certainly enlarging. A spirit, not long since, waited on Judge Edmonds and wanted him to take a drink through an earthly medium. The Pawtucket Gazette relates the following pleasant incident of spiritual communication which quite exceeds the Judge's story:—

"An enthusiastic believer was relating to a skeptic the spiritual performances to which he could testify, and among other things said that on a certain occasion the spirit of his wife, who had been dead several years, returned to him, and seating herself upon his knee, put her arms around him, and kissed him as [illegible] gratification as she used to when living. 'I do not mean to say,' remarked the skeptic, 'that the spirit of your wife really embraced and kissed you?' 'No, not exactly that,' replied the spirit believer; 'but her spirit took possession of the body of a female medium, and through her embraced and kissed me.'—We presume that believers are often as willingly deceived as this man was."

ADJOURNED GENERAL SESSIONS.—The Court met at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning Present—Hon. S. B. Harrison, Chairman; John Doel, Esq., Associate.

The Grand Jury found a true bill against Patrick Smith for Arson. In the case of Frridge, for Misdemeanor, they found no bill.

The Grand Jury made their presentment His Honor then discharged them, with a short address.

The case of Patrick Smith for Arson was then tried,—The Crown Attorney prosecuting and Mr. William B. Sullivan for the Defence.

The prisoner was charged with firing the stable of Mr. John Engle at Weston. Several witnesses were examined for the prosecution. Mr Sullivan called no witnesses for the Defence but having addressed the jury in elequent terms, they brought in a verdict of —NOT GUILTY.

The Court adjourned until Monday.—Leader.

☞ The steamship Indian Empire arrived at Broad Haven at 9 a. m. on Friday. The passengers landed in excellent health, expressing themselves as highly satisfied with the ship, captain and crew. During the whole passage they experienced heavy south-east gales. The ship only having 80 hours, coal, and being only 340 miles from Galway, Capt. Courtney in consequence of a continuation of the fearful state of the weather, deemed it advisable to lay to, which he did seven days; during which time it was necessary to consume a small portion of the cargo, consisting of cotton staves, &c. The ship left Halifax on the night of the 31st, having on board 16 days' fuel. The machinery worked well, and the ship proved to be a first rate sea boat, and well adapted to Atlantic navigation. She shipped only one sea during the entire voyage.

The New Era.

Newmarket, Friday Dec. 31, 1858.

General Summary.

☞ A missionary meeting takes place on Wednesday evening next, the 5th proximo, in the Wesleyan Church, in this place.

☞ Several pieces of poetry and one or two communications we are obliged to defer, for want of space.

☞ From the New Advertisement in to-day's issue, our readers will observe the trains make two trips daily to Toronto and back, as usual.

☞ Ere this day's impression reaches many of our kind patrons, the year 1859 will have arrived, and we heartily wish it may prove a happy and prosperous one to them all, and trust they may live to enjoy many happy returns of the festive season.

☞ Our townsmen are reminded that the Concert of the Newmarket Brass Band, takes place this evening, in the Union Sabbath School Room. The Programme is a good one, and we have no doubt but the performers will be able to give excellent satisfaction. Friends, give the Band a New Year's Bumper.

☞ We have received a communication from the Clerk and late Treasurer of King, in answer to some remarks from an Elector of the 4th Ward of King, in which some facts regarding the recent trial between him and the late Reeve, are brought to light. Having received it only late yesterday, we are compelled to defer its publication until next week.

☞ A company of Serenaders—home amateurs, by the way—enlivened the hearts of the inhabitants of Newmarket, on Christmas Eve, with songs, glees, odes, &c. We do not know who compose the troupe; but they certainly did themselves great credit, and the citizens generally were highly pleased.

☞ We understand the opponents of Municipal Reform are circulating every species of falsity that ingenuity can concoct regarding the issues of the next election; but strange to say, the candidates do not agree among themselves. For instance: Mr. Wallis imagines his dear friend Mr. Bache is all right upon the Reserve Question, and no doubt uses his influence among a certain class in favor of the Councillor that assisted to carry out his views; but if he will still continue in that course; how do Mr. Bache's supporters recognize in him a friend to education: while Mr. Roe is opposed to both of the above-named gentlemen, and runs upon the "Pins and Needles" Ticket.

New Year's Address,

TO THE PATRONS OF THE "NEW ERA."

On our annual round again,
We sing of measures and of men,—
Review the past with vengeful ire,
As Clio opes her volumes dire,
Or rise in hope's serene delight,
As the bright future cheers our sight.

Ye gods of the infernal realm,
Give way—John A. must have the helm.
Pluto in deeds of darkness fell,
Ne'er scourged the earth, or blighted hell,
With such misdeeds, or ruthless hand,
As the old Premier and his band.
Oaths falser—blacker far, 'tis said,
Than e'er before by trickey Head
Were sanctioned—they all freely took,
While the sage Prince stretched forth the book,
And more corruption, wrong and waste,
Than e'er Old Nero's reign disgraced;
While those who gave the monster aid,
Have all been bought and then betrayed.
At last the Northern Road is crushed,
And Tom, the "bully," cowed or hushed;
While Patton stands with eyes aghast,
And Morrison mid jobs is past,—
No one dare speak it is presumed,
Lest his state plunder be exhumed.

We turn from loathsome scenes like these,
Which breed disgust, worse than disease—
To that fair field where virtue wins,
And honor, fame, or wealth begins.
The "crisis" as it rushed o'er earth,
Crushing banks and men of worth,
Was by some gracious potent hand
Averted from this favored land.
Though Cere's horn has not run o'er,
With more than plenty, as before;
Still there's enough—and some to spare,
For all our wants, with frugal care.

Our gallant sons uphold the crown,
Winning, in India, fame, renown.
May they return with laurels green
Escorting here our Gracious Queen.

Our future—no prophetic eye
Can scan the greatness which we hie.
Soon westward press the eastern horde,
"For the Pacific—all on board;"
The iron horse and rattling train,
Dash on through nature's wild domain,
O'er streams, and mountain gorges through:
"Rouse up! the gold fields are in view,"
Cries the Conductor—"here we stop,
Where gems as brilliant showers drop;
And the Pacific sparkles bright
With golden sands, and pearly light."—
John Bull may boast his briny sway,—
This inter-oceanic way,
Will be an Empire mightier far,
Than Neptune's wings or burning car,
As the whole world of wealth will pour,
In commerce through, from shore to shore.

The Maine Law, too, will soon impart,
Its blissful joys to every heart;
And peace, and purity will reign
While the old tyrant wears his chain.

Friends, remember, that in winter,
Food and wood sustain the Printer,—
That ink and paper he must get,
His hands be paid, old bills be met;
All which requires a little cash
To save his back the legal lash.

May joy, and smiling plenty greet
Each home to-day, while patrons meet;
And sparkling water be their cheer—
Then happy! happy!! happy year!!!

Good Measures and How they were Carried Out.

Last week we promised in this issue to furnish our readers with some of the measures termed "good," by "One of the Present Council." Before doing so, however, we will take the liberty to answer a question sometimes asked by the opponents of the people's ticket—viz: "If we condemn a part, why not condemn the whole of the present Council?" We answer: the Reeve being in the chair, was but a cipher, comparatively speaking, until after Mr. Davison was elected. He should not, therefore, be shouldered with the same responsibility; while the principal part of the illegal By-Law were passed and unjust decisions given, before Mr. Davison went to the Council Board, And, although we do not care to sanction all the acts of the two last named gentlemen; yet, we believe they try to ascertain the will of their constituents, and were ready at all times, to be governed by the well-understood wishes of the people;—they, therefore, have redeeming qualities—particularly their course regarding the appropriation of the Reserve Fund.

The first By-Law printed in full has reference to Inns and the duties of Inspector. Page 6, first clause states that every applicant for a license to keep a House of Public Entertainment, shall pay, in addition to the Imperial Tax, the sum of $31. Did this majority carry out this clause? or did they not, like the truant schoolboy, so act as to have one story for his parents, and another for his teacher—one speech for the teetotallers, and another for the anti-temperance party! The whole $31 was exacted; but then a quiet resolution was passed refunding a part to certain parties. We are not now discussing the question as to whether the license was fixed too high or too low; but what should be done is—the By-Law should make a sliding scale, where the Council are determined to carry out that principle, and not publish to the world a base deception. On page 7, last clause, the same By-Law says—it shall be the duty of the Inspector to report the number of days he has been necessarily engaged in the discharge of his duties, sometime in December; but notwithstanding this, long before a report is obtained they fix his salary—whether too much or too little, they know not and care less: these are the men now desiring another lease of office. Besides, as in the case the present year, one Inspector performed the heaviest part of his duties, and a complete report presented, but no provision was made to remunerate him. This By-Law was passed Feb. 22, 1858.

In the By-Law above-mentioned, it states that one-half of the fines collected under it, (except where the inspector prosecutes) shall be paid to the informer; while the very next By-Law printed, No. 12, last clause, says that all fines collected under this or any other By-Law in this Municipality, shall be paid into the Village Treasury. Wonderful legislation! Where is the magistrate that could carry out such By-Laws?

By-Law No. 13, passed March 9th, gives us what the majority considers to be the duty of the Assessor. This By-Law says property shall be valued "as if appraised in payment of a just debt due from a solvent debtor." Would the property be worth any the less if the debtor was insolvent? However, let us trace the acts of the Council on this By-Law. The Assessor done what he considered his instructions intended he should do,—and then his masters turn round and do the work over, actually stultifying themselves by placing certain property below what the owners would take for it, and less than what plenty would willingly give—and this, too, be it remembered without any authority; for the law only contemplates action, by Courts of Revision, in cases of appeal—and even then, certain notice must be given.

We pass then to the next By-Law, No. 14, and one of the principal clauses in it is totally inoperative, from its manner of construction—we refer to the 4th. It was intended to regulate the construction of all chimneys; but in reality only relates to those used or constructed for Bakers, Potters, Brewers, &c.—In proof of this, we instance the complaint made by the Inspector to the Reeve a short time since.

Pass on to the next By-Law printed, No. 18, clause 3, and we have an enactment, which if carried out, would embroil the Corporation in expenses. Power is there given for any inhabitant to shoot any "tame pigeon or other fowl found trespassing." This clause is totally at variance with all law: and opposed to reason.

The next By-Law makes it the duty of the Assessor to assess every householder owning a dog, for the same; and the Clerk is compelled to charge every such householder 50cts for such dog, on the Roll, to be collected by the Collector. So far so good; but our wise men did not stop here. They instructed the Collector, that wherever he found a dog on his tour this fall, whether the owner was assessed for the same or not, to levy and collect the sum of 50cts. This is manifestly unjust. They might just as well, should a rate-payer purchase a horse or cow between the time the Assessor and Collector make their rounds, instruct said Collector to levy and collect an extra fee in consequence. Where will such legislation lead to?

The next By-Law has for its object the levying of a tax or license upon Exhibitions of all kinds. By this By-Law there is no difference made between an exhibition calculated to improve and instruct and the most ludicrous. There is no difference made between a Circus and a penny-peep: within a short time two exhibitions were held in the Court House, bills were posted of some great Mogul, but no license fees were taken.—If a Panorama of nature comes along, the proprietor will be taxed ten dollars. This is passing "good measures."

By-Law, No. 18, relates to Pound-Keepers. The 3rd clause states what rate of fees shall be charged and allowed to the Pound Keeper. All right so far; but clause five was intended to make him refund the impounding fees to the Village Treasury,—but the clause is worded so badly that that officer can pocket the whole. This is another "good measure," we presume.

By-Law, No. 26, says, that any person desirous to sell Spirituous Liquors, Malt Liquors, Ginger Beer, or any other beverage in any place in this Municipality, must take out a license. According to this clause no person could vend summer drinks of any kind without a license—not even Soda-water: the milk-man too, should also take out a license. Another "good measure."

The next By-Law, No. 27, we have before alluded to, through our columns: it relates to the protection of Side-walks and Bridges, and is positively an absurdity. This By-Law was also introduced by one of the majority, and no doubt is classed among the "good measures."

From the limited time at our disposal this week, we have been unable to enter into further particulars; but enough has been shown to prove that the largest proportion of the By-Laws of the Municipality require altering and amending,—and also to prove, that many of the measures adopted were not "good measures." We hesitate not to say, that one third of the printed By-Laws are either inoperative, inconsistent, or unlawful.

Electors of Newmarket, remember these things when you go to the polls! The majority have had their fun; it is now your turn.

The People's Ticket.

Electors of Newmarket, if you value your privileges, vote for the People's Ticket! If you desire to see equal justice meted out to all, vote the People's Ticket! If you detest flunkeyism, vote for the People's Ticket! If you oppose jobbery in our Council, vote the People's Ticket! If you are opposed to increased taxation, vote the People's Ticket. If you desire to lessen your school assessments, vote the People's Ticket! If you desire the opposites of the above, vote for the majority in the present Council; if otherwise, vote for, Messrs, Cook, Smith, Hunter, Sutherland and Davison—men who will be governed by the will of the people.

Let every elector who attended the caucus meetings, and those who have signified their intention to support the people's Ticket to canvassers, go united to the polls, and every man will be returned. Remember that should the majority in the present Council be elected, they will continue to abridge your privileges continue to pass impracticable and injudicious measure, and then call them "good"—perhaps spend your public money in things less profitable than "pins and needles," and in the end, launch us heavily into debt. Attend early at the Court House, and hear the apologies to be offered by those in whom you reposed confidence last year, for their many delinquencies: and then consider the propriety of giving them another lease of office, Do not be led away by bugaboos and hollow cries about men upon the People's Ticket; but make them answer to their own sins, and define their future policy—if they have one. The new Act gives Councils tremendous powers, and if not judiciously exercised may prove a curse instead of a blessing. Deal a blow to those who have betrayed confidence, that will serve as a warning to future aspirants for municipal honors, and the result will prove highly beneficial to the best interests of the Village.

Good Templars.

We are informed that the Good Templars of Stouffville had a most magnificent party on Friday last. The Eastern Lodges met at the Hall and proceeded to Ringwood to meet the order from "Pine Orchard" and Markham, and forming a procession of sleighs which extended over a mile, returned to the Hall through the village making a most imposing show. Sharon Brass Band was in attendance, and if we can rely on the representations of those present fairly turned the heads of the Stouffvilleits with their mellow strains. A most excellent dinner was served, the physical wants being satisfied, the Congregation Chapel was filled to repletion. Dr. Freel was called to the chair, and the meeting was ably addressed by the Rev. John Durrant, Mr. W. Graffy, the Rev. Mr. Taggart and C. G. Curtis, G. W. C. We regret that we were not present to have reported the speeches.—We are informed, however, that the whole tendency of the arguments was the passage of a prohibitory Liquor Law as soon as possible.

What kind of excitement they must have had at night to produce such a thrilling pleasurable effect, we at this distance, can scarcely imagine. From report it appears to have been a Concert of vocal music, and melo-dramatic, comic operato, demonstrating that the highest conviviality can be enjoyed without the excitement of the bowl that intoxicates. Some character by the name of Taylor, made his debut on the Stouffville Boards with an eclat eclipsing that of Jenny Lind in parts or London. No one can tell who he is or where he came from, but the general opinion is that he is some celebrity enjoying a rural recreation incog. Success to our ambitious neighbors. They have won for themselves a proud position in the Temperance army. No other place that we recollect, has given a public entertainment to their members for supporting the Maine Law in Parliament.

Ministerial Crisis.

RESIGNATION OF MR. SICOTTE.

"There is no longer any reason to doubt, we believe, that Mr. Sicotte has awakened to a sense of the humiliation and defeat attached to the Ministerial position, and has resolved to sever an alliance which to him has been alike embarrassing and unprofitable. Mr. Sicotte, we understand, has resigned the Commissionership of Public Works. The immediate occasion of the step is alleged to be the unwillingness or the inability of the Government to mature a policy, embracing leading questions, in view of the approaching meeting of Parliament. Mr. Sicotte, it is said, has contended for the immediate preparation of measures by which the Government should stand or fall; whilst ministers generally, adhering rigidly to the course indicated by their antecedents and reputation, propose to begin the session without a policy, trusting, as heretofore, to the chapter of accidents for the means of prolonging their existence from day to day."—Globe.

The Administration of the great wee man, who recently had so grand a jollification at the Royal Palace in England, is beginning to crumble. The Hon. Commissioner of Public Works was the principal spoke in the wheel from Lower Canada,—and his withdrawal must be the signal for further disclosures and a new shuffle of the political cards. On Wednesday, while in the City, we learned that Hon. John A. McDonald had also determined on leaving the Ministry before the assembling of Parliament. Should this prove correct, then good-bye to the Cartier Administration,—and may we indulge the hope that with his dynasty will end Coalition Governments in Canada.

Correspondence.

☞ We wish to be distinctly understood that we are no responsible for the opinions of our correspondents.

To to the Editor of the New Era.

SIR—In your columns of to-day's publication I read a communicatin from "An Elector of the Fourth Ward of King" which contains statements so at variance with the genuine truth, in connection with the subject referred to, that in justice to the inhabitants of the said Ward, the Township and your readers, I feel called upon, so far as time and the space in your valuable columns will permit, to place them in possession of the facts.

Your correspondent begins with the present year, and says at that date a "vague and false report," to the effect that Mr. Hughes had in his possession, and refused or neglected to pay over funds belonging to the Municipality. Now, Mr. Editor, these reports were neither vague nor false, your correspondent, to the contrary, notwithstanding,—as was amply proved by the Auditor's Report, which was not made for nearly two months after the last elections, the date of these alleged vague and false reports, which shewed at that date, when Mr. Hughes had no doubt largely reduced his liability to the Municipality, that he was still a defaulter to the large amount of nearly $400—besides a large sum of interest justly due still unpaid at this date, viz.: Dec. 24, 1858. These funds were held by Mr. Hughes for a period of between one and two years, for which he has not paid the Municipality any interest, when, too, he as Reeve, had been offered for the use of said Fund, 15 per cent. per annum on mortgage security. And if these undeniable statements do not convince your correspondent that the above were neither vague nor false reports, I would request him to ask Mr. Hughes' colleagues in office, for 1854-5-6 and 1857, if Mr. Hughes did not, during those years, hold more or less of the Funds belonging to the Municipality, and that to the serious inconvenience of the officers of the Township.

I think the foregoing facts will convince your readers; and the fact that Mr. Hughes had no one to second his nomination to represent the Fourth Ward in the Council for the ensuing year, at a large and influential meeting of the Electors, held a few days since for that purpose, shows that they, and the electors of this township are already convinced that he is quite too "old and experienced" to any longer represent the Ward, or Township with credit to himself or advantage to them. So Mr. Hughes must not complain of ingratitude, or feel aggrieved or neglected, if the present or future inhabitants of this Municipality should refuse or neglect to erect to his memory a suitable monument, as a token of their high appreciation of his eminent municipal services rendered.

Now, Sir, in the face of the above facts, with many more which might be quoted, is it not very extraordinary that your correspondent should be found capable of telling your readers, and especially those of this Township that these were "vague and false reports," and appearing to be willing to plunge still further into the abyss of error, (I might, with propriety, use a much harder phrase, but forbear,) by attempting to prove those reports were "vague and false by quoting a recent decision arrived at by the Judges in Chamber in reference to a certain suit brought by our late Treasurer, in the name of the Municipality,—and which decision had nothing to do with whether Mr. Hughes owed the Treasurer or not; but simply amounting to a non-suit on account of the suit not having been brought in the proper name. But be it remembered that an intelligent Jury, before whom the suit was tried, rendered a verdict that Mr. Hughes did owe the late Treasurer a large sum. The difficulties, however, out of which this suit grew had not been heard of at the time of our last Election, or when these alleged "vague and false reports" were put in circulation, and hence, could not have have had an allusion to that matter: these "vague reports" had reference to other funds in Mr. Hughes' possession, and which subsequent investigation too abundantly proved to be the case.

Now, Mr. Editor, I would recommend your correspondent for the future to hold his peace upon this subject, as it resembles a certain substance which emits an offensive odor in proportion to the extent it is distributed. Your correspondent makes other allusions to the importance of putting honest and capable men in the Council as well as in Parliament, in order that certain ends may be attained. He also alludes to the imperfection of a certain By-Law for the Regulation of Houses of Public Entertainment, as emanating from the Councilman for the Fourth Ward, which is very good in theory, but in his application he diverges far from facts, and shows himself to be very bungling and clumsy in the use of logic. He well knows that the Public Houses in this Township have never before been so efficiently and respectably conducted as during the present year.

In conclusion, Mr. Editor, I join your correspondent in appealing to the electors of the Fourth Ward of King; but would suggest that his paragraph be amended by striking out all after the word "necessity," where it first occurs, and substituting in lieu thereof, the following—"of never allowing again the Reeve to be sub-Treasurer,"—of never allowing a man again to the Council, who will not, when civilly enquired of, give courteous and intelligent explanations of the manner of doing the public business, and where the public funds are, and what they are earning,—and who will allow the Clerk and Treasurer of the Municipality to remain for years in office without holding bonds from them for the faithful discharge of their duties

Yours, &c.,
AN ELECTOR OF THE FOURTH WARD.
King, Dec. 24, 1858.

To the Editor of the New Era.

SIR,—Having noticed in your last issue, over the signature of "An Elector of the 4th Ward of King," a desire to bring me before the Electors of said Ward, as a candidate for the forthcoming Municipal Election. I wish it to be distinctly understood, that I am not a candidate, and if elected it will be against my will; and I shall pay the fine rather than serve. In common with many of the Electors of the Ward, I think a change of the representatives very desirable; but there are persons willing to serve, who, no doubt, would fill the situation with credit to themselves and to the Electors generally; men who would mark out a straight forward course and follow it,—men who would disdain to act inconsistent with their professions,—men who would be willing to stand or fall by their own merit, rather than attempt to raise themselves into popularity, by falsely traducing the character of others.

Yours, respectfully,
GEORGE HUGHES.
Brownsville, Dec. 28, 1858.

P.S.—Since writing the above, I understand that I am charged as the author or writer of the article above referred to. This, Mr. Editor, I most emphatically deny.—G.H.

To the Editor of the New Era.

MR. EDITOR,—From the little acquaintance I have had in your County I am well convinced that there are many of its inhabitants who do not despise the most humble follower of the Saviour of whom we read in St. John, 3rd chapter, when he, in the love of his God, Saviour and Comforter, attempts to tell his fellow sinners what great things the Grace of which we read in Paul's Epistle to Ephesians, 1st and 2nd chapter, has in him and for him done. Your readers are aware that for more than two years my time and the feeble talents that God has given me, have been devoted to the promulgation of the truth as it is in Jesus Christ, and in His Gospel revealed to mankind at large, and by his Holy Spirit revealed in all who accept of Salvation by Grace through Faith in Christ Jesus, in God ordained made and by His ordained means. See Isaiah, 55th chapter, St. John 7th chapter and Revelations last chapter. I find many happy followers of Jesus, who, with me, give God all the glory of their conversion. They do not seem desirous of going halves with the Redeemer and making out that they did one part of the work and He did the other, but they give God all the glory, and His Grace in Christ Jesus all the praise. They feel that Grace quickened them, Grace converted them, and Grace keeps them, and they also feel that Grace will give them eternal life, because the Saviour says so. In St. John 10th chapter, the reader can see for himself what Christ says to his chosen ones; and this language is not addressed to any others. But this language, my dear reader, is addressed to you if you have been converted to God and born of the Holy Ghost, and if this work has been done in you your life will be a constant life, you will love God with all your soul, and you love all mankind, and it is more than your meat and drink to keep God's Commandments, and this eternal life, my fellow traveller to eternity, is offered to you if you will accept NOW of Christ as your Saviour. Are you willing to obey the call of the Gospel and forsake your evil ways and all your sins and vices? if you are it is a sure thing you are a child of Grace, for none can become willing to obey God until He works it in them; and if you feel that you are a sinner, and if you feel desirous of leading a new life, now is God's accepted time, and now you may become an adopted child of the sort spoken of in Romans 8th chapter, if you will but believe in Jesus. For your encouragement, my fellow sinner, I would say I believed in Jesus in the summer of 1856 and I have enjoyed more peace and more pleasure since than I did all my life before. In my day I have been in all states and conditions that ungodly people think calculated to give happiness. I have spent thousands of pounds in seeking happiness, but I never found happiness until I was enabled by Grace to feel the truth of Romans, 5th chapter and 5th verse.

When Grace began to work that effectual work in me, which all who have experienced religion are aware of, I had, for some weeks, been a Teetotaller. And for 16 years, previous to my conversion by Grace Divine, I had been known in the Niagara District, Canada West, as the most persevering drunkard in that District. When I got drunk I generally kept it up for weeks and months, and I believe now in perseverance of a more glorious sort, even the perseverance that God's Word teaches us all His elect children in Christ Jesus manifest to the end. Paul speaks of it in Romans, 8th chapter. For more than two years I have used no liquor, tobacco, profanity, or blasphemous Infidelity, and I would still be a slave to all these were it not for the Grace spoken of in God's Word, as already referred to. Reader, seek this Saviour and be happy too, as is

Yours, truly,
JAMES A. DAVIDSON.

Arrival of the Kangaroo

NEW YORK, 26th Dec.—The steamship Kangaroo, from Liverpool on the 8th, arrived at five o'clock this afternoon. Her advices are mainly anticipated by the Pacific at St. John's.

The steamship Kanrak from Liverpool, 4th December, arrived at this port on Saturday.

The steamship Ariel from Southampton, November 30th, arrived yesterday.

The Irish potato crop is the finest since 1840.

A local telegraph system on a most extensive scale is projected in London. Messages are proposed to be delivered within a radius of four miles of Charing Cross for fourpence for ten words.

At Lyons, the speculators who bought up a large portion of last year's silk crop, have been forced, by the abundant supply of this year, to sell at a great loss.

Letres from Naples assert that the King had offered to the Western powers to re-establish diplomatic relations, and that the English government had replied that everything would be subordinate to a satisfactory regulation of the amnesty.

A Berlin telegram says that Baron Humboldt was dangerously ill.

It is stated that the Regent of Sweeden intends to propose the abolition of the edicts of Gustavus Vasa against converts to Catholicism, in consequence of the harsh manner in which these laws have been lately administered.

LONDON, Dec. 8th—The Times publishes a proclamation issued by Lord Clyde on recommencing the campaign at Oude, announcing that where there is no resistance, no plundering will be allowed; but where even a single shot is fired, houses will be burnt and villages plundered.

The funds were dull and heavy yesterday, owing to the fact of numerous operations for a rise being recently entered into by weak speculators.

There was renewed ease in the discount market, the minimum being 2½ to 2¾.

FILLIBUSTERS ARRESTED IN IRELAND—A NEW ATLANTIC CABLE TO BE LAID.

SANDY HOOK, Dec. 27.

The Liverpool breadstuffs market was dull, and prices nominal. The Liverpool provision market was dull.

Consols for account were quoted at 97¼ to 97⅜. The books for money were shut. The bullion in the Bank of England had increased £145,000.

The reduction of the rate of interest to 2½ per cent. is confirmed.

Numerous arrests had been made near Cork of parties connected with fillibustering invasions from America.

It was already expected that government would guarantee a new capital of £500,000 to the Atlantic Telegraph Company, and that a contract to lay a new cable will be made.

It is said that the French commissioners recommended a continuance of the African emigration scheme.

The Calcutta, China, and Australian mails were telegraphed, but the news is unimportant.

Special Notice.

The relaxing heats of summer leave behind them a long train of evils. The most universal of these are general debility, and its attendant, lowness of spirits. For these we can recommend a speedy and unfailing cure, in the shape of Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. It is, in our opinion, a medicine sui generis—alone—unapproachable. It seems to reach the fountain head of the difficulty in the digestive organization, and thus to relieve the secretions and the blood of the macerias morbi, or the cause of disease. Its tonic properties gives vigor to the membranes of the stomach, and promote the secretion of the gastric juice, which dissolve the food, while its cordial, soothing, and alterative influence imparts general regularity and strength to the action of the secretive organs, and seems to fortify the constitution. Such is our own experience in its effects, and we believe it is confirmed by the evidence of all who have tried it, or had an opportunity of witnessing its operation. For sale by Dr. Jackson, 130 Arch Street. See advertisement.

DR. MORSE'S
INDIAN ROOT PILLS.

CAUTION.

Merchants and Traders will be on their guard and not be imposed upon by a Counterfeit of Morse's Indian Root Pills, signed A. B. Moore. All genuine Indian Root Pills have the name and signature of A. J. White & Co., on each box.

Dr. Morse, the inventor of Morse's Indian Root Pills, has spent the greater part of his life in travelling, having visited Europe, Asia, and Africa, as well as North America—has spent three years among the Indians of our Western country—it was in this way that the Indian Root Pills were first discovered.—Dr. Morse was the first man to establish the fact that all diseases arise from IMPURITY of the BLOOD—that our strength, health and life depended upon this vital fluid.

A. J. WHITE, & Co.
50 Leonard Street, New York.

DR. MORSE, the inventor of MORSE'S ROOT PILLS, has spent the greater part of his life in travelling, having visited Europe, Asia, and Africa as well as North America—has spent three years among the Indians of our Western country—it was in this way that the Indian Root Pills were first discovered. Dr. Morse was the first man to establish the fact that all diseases arise from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD—that our strength, health and life depends upon this vital fluid.

When the various passages becomes clogged, and do not act in perfect harmony with the different functions of the body, the blood looses its action, becomes thick, corrupted and diseased; thus causing all pains, sickness and distress of every name; our strength is exhausted, our health we are deprived of, and if nature is not assisted in throwing off the stagnant humors, the blood will become choked and cease to act, and thus our light of life will forever be blown out. How important then that we should keep the various passages of the body free and open. And how pleasant to us that we have it in our power to put a medicine in your reach, namely, Morse's Indian Root Pills, manufactured from plants and roots which grow around the mountainous cliffs in Nature's garden, for the health and recovery of diseased man. One of the roots from which these Pills are made is a Sudorific, which opens the pores of the skin, and assists Nature in throwing out the finer parts of the corruption within. The second is an Expectorant, and opens and unclogs the passage to the lungs, and thus, in a soothing manner, performs its duty by throwing off phlegm, and other humors from the lungs by copious spitting. The third is a Diuretic, which gives ease and double strength to the kidneys; thus encouraged, they draw large amounts of impurity from the blood, which is then thrown out bountifully by the urinary or water passage, and which could not have been discharged in any other way. The fourth is a Cathartic, and accompanies the other properties of the Pills while engaged in purifying the blood; the coarser particles of impurity which cannot pass by the outer outlets, are thus taken up and conveyed off in greater quantities by the bowels.

From the above, it is shown that Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills not only enter the stomach, but becomes united with the blood, for they find way to every part, and completely rout out and cleanse the system from all impurity, and the life of the body, which is the blood becomes perfectly healthy; consequently all sickness and pain is driven from the system, for they cannot remain when the body becomes so pure and clear.

The reason why people are so distressed when sick, and why so many die, is because they do not get a medicine which will pass to the afflicted parts, and which will open the natural passages for the disease to be cast out; hence, a large quantity of food and other matter is lodged, and the stomach and intestines are literally overflowing with the corrupted mass; thus undergoing disagreeable fermentation, constantly mixing with the blood, which throws the corrupted matter through every vein and artery until life is taken from the body by disease. Dr. Morse's PILLS have added to themselves victory upon victory, by restoring millions of the sick to blooming health and happiness. Yes, thousands who have been racked or tormented with sickness, pain and anguish, and whose feeble frames have been scorched by the burning elements of raging fever, and who have been brought, as it were, within a step of the silent grave, now stand ready to testify that they would have been numbered with the dead, had it not been for this great and wonderful medicine, Morse's Indian Root Pills. After one or two doses had been taken, they were astonished, and absolutely surprised, in witnessing their charming effects. Not only do they give immediate ease and strength, and take away all sickness, pain and anguish, but they at once go to work at the foundation of the disease, which is the blood. Therefore, it will be shown, especially by those who use these Pills, that they will so cleanse and purify, that disease—that deadly enemy—will take its flight, and the flush of youth and beauty will again return, and the prospect of a long and happy life will cherish and brighten your days.

Caution.—Beware of a counterfeit signed A. B. Moore. All genuine have the name of A. J. White & Co. on each box. Also the signature of A. J. White & Co. All others are spurious.

A. J. WHITE & CO., Sole Proprietors.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all dealers in Medicines.

Agents wanted in every town, village and hamlet throughout the land. Parties desiring the agency will address as above for terms.
